Staff Council President, Andy Stephany welcomed everyone to the meeting. There was no closed session. Vice Chancellor of Human Resources, Dave DeJong joined as a guest and gave an update. His report included the following topics:

- Students are moving back to resident halls during assigned times at the main campus.
- Regional arrivals are going well over a two day schedule.
- They are conducting COVID sample testing of arriving students,
- There are quarantined rooms for students that need it.
- In person classes won’t be starting until September 14 at main campus.
- There will be a concierge program that will be set up to help with mask and temperature checks.
- A link will be sent out to volunteer for the program and a training video that will be created on what to do once you volunteer at a concierge station.

Mark Burdsall discussed the statement of compliance from the RC’s. He noted that there are still ten that need to turn in performance reviews, and they are working with them on this.
- Supervisor training – there will be a preview training with a working group that will go through the training and give feedback. This training will also be available to regional campuses.
- Shaping the workplace- Mark and his team are meeting with subject matter experts to review the data that was collected. Then they will move onto benchmarking.

July’s meeting minutes were accepted and approved

Andy Stephany, staff council president asked that if anyone is taking early retirement to please let us know, so that they can be recognized. Also, an email went out regarding open volunteer positions on the Board of Trustees. If you are interested, please email us. This is a great way to be part of shared governance.

Kenny Doty, Staff Council Executive Vice President, encouraged everyone to take part of the concierge program. He also reminded everyone if they have any IT issues, to please let him know he would be happy to help.
Tammeke Banks, Vice President of Finance asked committee chairs to turn in any budget requests by September 1st.
